Best Western George Hotel

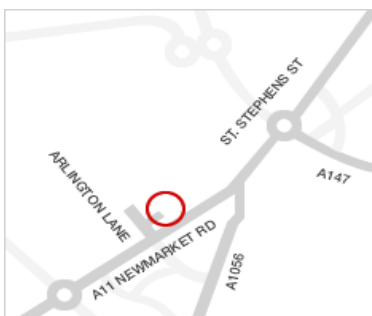

Located in a quiet conservation area just 15 minutes walk from Norwich City centre, the George Hotel offers all the charm of a Victorian house with the comfort and services you would expect from a three star establishment.

Business meetings, weddings and private functions are all well catered for in a range of suites, holding up to 80 conference delegates and 110 party guests. With a dedicated team always on hand you are guaranteed superb service from the moment you walk through the doors.

The award winning Arlington Grill and Brasserie offers a superb range of delicious meals produced from locally sourced ingredients, whilst the delightful bar is the perfect place for socialising or just relaxing. Good wholesome snacks and a selection of wines, beers and spirits are available throughout the day.

Whilst staying with us why not take the opportunity to explore the many attractions that this historic city has to offer. Or why not go further and discover the Norfolk Broads National Park or the glorious North Norfolk coast famed for its stunning beauty and mile after mile of beautiful sandy beaches.
